

We are Bickerton Jewellery, and we have been making high quality jewellery for over 80 regiments of the British Army since 1963, which we sell in PRI shops and Regimental Museums as well as through our retail shop. In particular, we make seal style signet rings, lady's brooches, cufflinks, tie stickpins, lapel studs and kilt pins.

My father in law, Mick Bickerton made a range of Queen's Own Highlanders jewellery. Sadly, he passed away a couple of months ago, and in sorting through the vast range of regimental jewellery that he made, we came across the Queen's Own Highlanders range. We have posted photographs and details of the range on our website at http://bickertonjewellery.com/queen s own highlanders

Mick's son, Stephen is continuing the family jewellery business and we would like to discuss with you ways in which we can promote our regimental jewellery within the Queen's Own Highlanders Associations. Please take a look at our website www.bickertonjewellery.com in particular the Queen's Own Highlanders page and please get in touch with us to discuss any ways in which you may be able to help us in circulating our details and making your members aware of our services. Your help would be very much appreciated.

Thanking you in anticipation
