

Calling the Forces Family...

Are you, or were you, a soldier, a soldier's spouse or family member? Maybe a member of your extended family (e.g. a grandfather, uncle, cousin) served in the Forces?

To coincide with National Family Week 31st May to 5th June The Highlanders' Museum is holding a temporary exhibition on the theme of the Forces Family.

We need your thoughts. Do you have a funny memory, a serious recollection, some story to tell about the Forces Family? Friends, foes, fighting, food...? How has it changed? What stays the same? Write a sentence or a paragraph – all contributions are welcome. A selection of the responses will be included in the exhibition.

Alix Powers-Jones (Museum Director)
