Dear friend,

For your support in the first year of The Mark Wright Project, we would like to invite you to a very special anniversary event –

- in the Riady Lecture Hall, Napier University, Craiglockhart, Edinburgh
- on Saturday November 20th 2010 at 6pm

We are delighted that Mark's ex-commanding officer, Colonel Stuart Tootal DSO OBE, has agreed to come and give a talk about his time as commander of 3 PARA.

Colonel Stuart Tootal DSO OBE served in Germany, Northern Ireland, Afghanistan, and during the invasion of Iraq. He also served with the MoD, for which he was awarded the OBE.

In 2006, he commanded 3 PARA in Afghanistan and was awarded a DSO for outstanding leadership of his Battle Group. After resigning from the Army over concerns at the treatment of his wounded and lack of equipment, he set up the 3 PARA Afghanistan Trust charity to assist in the provision of welfare support for wounded paratroopers.

He is the author of the Sunday Times best seller - Danger Close - commanding 3 PARA in Afghanistan and a regular defence commentator to the media.

Signed copies of his book "Danger Close" will be available to purchase.

Colonel Tootal's talk will include time for questions. Afterwards, there will be a three course dinner with wonderful entertainment inspired by Craiglockhart and the War Poets Collection which will be open for you to explore.

Tickets for the talk are £10 and for the talk and dinner are £50.

Numbers for dinner are limited, so do please let us know by return if you want to reserve seats for dinner, even if you need a little time to confirm numbers. For dinner, each table has 10 place settings, therefore if you would like to be seated with friends who are applying separately, please let us know their names.

Proceeds from the event will be divided equally between The Mark Wright Project and The Afghanistan Trust.
