

Communications Co-ordinator

We need your help. Our family is spread worldwide and we need to stay in touch with them all. It's an old family, starting in 1633 and big, with an incredible history. To stay in contact, we need to embrace today's technology whether using social media or the next thing round the corner. Whilst not forgetting those more used to tried and tested 'hard-copy'.

We are The Royal Scots (The Royal Regiment), their families and all associated with them over the years comprising all who served with The Royal Scots prior to being re-badged into The Royal Regiment of Scotland

We are looking for someone who:-

- Has experience of reaching audiences using a wide range of formats and applications
- Is at home with a wide range of people and stakeholders
- Is fluent and expressive in the written word
- Is familiar with IT, multi-media and social media as means of effective communication

Empathy with our armed forces is, of course, essential, if you've served, so much the better. The role is part-time for 2 <sup>1/2</sup> days a week, based in Edinburgh's New Town, although some work may be undertaken from home with occasional meetings in the Edinburgh area. Remuneration for this role will be dependent on experience.

For more information about this role, please contact David Nisbet on 01506 848436 or send your CV to david@wave-hr.com.

The closing date for applicants is 28 March 2014.
