

From Fontenoy to Helmand

Scots and the Military & the Military in Scotland 1745-2009

A joint conference by the Highlander's Museum and UHI Millennium Institute's Centre for History

Fort George

28th-29th June, 2010

Conference Programme

Monday 28th June

12.00 - 12.45 – Arrival and Registration

12.45 – 13.00 – Welcome – Dr Karen Cullen

13.00 – 15.00 – First Session

- Dr David Gates (Keynote) – “The Influence of Scottish Officers on the Light Divisions of Wellington’s Army”
- Brigadier Charles Grant – “Fontenoy – Cumberland’s Blunder?”
- Mr Donald Sutherland “Scots and the Battle for Maastricht at Lafelt (1747)”
- Chair: Major-General Seymour Monro

15.00 - 15.45 – Coffee Break

15.45 – 17.45 – Second Session

- Professor Edward Spiers – “Scots and the Wars of Empire 1879-1885”
- Dr Wendy Ugolini – ““My Jocks”: Military Identities and the Scottish Diaspora in Commonwealth Countries”
- Mr Roderick Balfour - “The Brave Sons of Skye”
- Chair: Dr David Gates

17.45 – 18.00 – Close

18.30 – 20.00 – Whisky Reception and Guided Tour of The Highlanders’ Museum

Tuesday 29th June

08.45 – 10.45 – Third Session (A)

- Dr Alix Powers-Jones – ““I see, I see!” The Significance of Personal Narrative in the Art of Engagement!”
- Ms Doreen Grove – “Military Mapping of Scotland”
- Mr Stuart Farrell – “Nairn Remembers – Nairn and the Great War 1914-18”
- Chair: Dr David Worthington

08.45 – 10.45 – Third Session (B)

- Major-General Seymour Monro – “Command in Post-Cold War Conflicts”
- Dr Jeremy Crang – “Scotland and the Second World War: a Military History”
- Dr Juliette Pattinson – “First ANYwhere: The First Aid Nursing Yeomanry’s Struggle to Find a Role in the British Military, 1907 – current”
- Chair: Professor Eric Grove

10.45 – 11.15 – Coffee Break

11.15- 12.30 – Fourth Session

- Professor Eric Grove – “Scotland as a Major Operating Base for the Royal Navy in the 20th Century”
- Dr Stewart Fraser – “Aston and Callwell: Britain’s Practitioner Theorists of the Early 20th Century”
- Chair: Mr Ronnie Dewar

12.30 – 13.30 – Plenary Session

Close

Non-speakers - £40

Students - £20

Please enclose a cheque payable to

If you wish to attend, please complete the following form and return to:

Dr Stewart M Fraser
History and Politics
Perth College UHI
Brahan Building
Crieff Road
Perth
PH1 2NX

Or e-mail at:

stewart.fraser@perth.uhi.ac.uk

Name.....

Address.....

.....

.....

Telephone.....

E-mail:

Do you wish to share a taxi/car? Y/N

If you are bringing your own car, please complete the following details (NB: These are required for security purposes):

Make of car:

Colour of car:

Registration: