

Musselburgh Race Day.

If you are partial to Horse Racing and meeting old friends then the Royal Scots Association organise an annual Musselburgh Race Day.

They have organised this years one for Sunday September 25th. Musselburgh Race Course, on Firth of Forth, just East of Edinburgh.

Last Year the Royal Regiment of Scotland was invited to join and they sponsored one of the races, which was one by 'Highland Warrior'.

This is a good way to keep the Golden Thread running through the Regiment, which we all know is becoming more difficult. It allows our veterans to meet old friends and enjoy the sport of Kings and if your canny win some money and enjoy a dram.

Lt Col Jim Blythe (Regimental Secretary) The Royal Scots / Royal Scots Borderers) may well be able to swing things so that veterans can enjoy some Antecedent Hospitality.

I can vouch first hand for the enjoyment factor gained by attending a Race Meeting such as this and on top of that meet old friends and promote the Army (Services) and Veterans.

Please put the date in your Diaries and see if you can't put a party together to enjoy a good day out.

Yours aye

Maurice Gibson
