We have a lot to finalise and agree. However, this warning order will allow you to make plans for travel, holidays, accommodation etc.

Please note that the Rockness Music Festival takes place over the same weekend and the A9 and the Inverness road junctions get very busy on the Friday.

An organising committee is in the process of being set up and details of how to apply for tickets (likely to be £10 per head) will be issued in due course. Not before 01 December 2010.

As this is going out on a fairly wide distribution I do not wish my details going worldwide therefore track me down through normal channels.

Pass the word.
