Crowds gather for North Shore's Canada Day Parade to see first the Queens Diamond Jubilee Medals awarded in BC.

Sgt Major (Rtd) Bob Maley, being presented by the Hon Andrew Saxton MP with his Queens Diamond Jubilee Medal on Canada Day at Waterfront Park in North Vancouver.

Hundreds of citizens gathered and enjoyed Canada Day Celebrations at Waterfront Park North Vancouver; many coming to watch the presentation of the first Queens Diamond Jubilee Medals to be awarded to six North Vancouver residents the first to be presented in British Columbia.

Sgt Major (Rtd) Bob Maley ( a former Veteran himself), is a long time resident of North Vancouver is one of the first of only six to be presented with the Queens Jubilee Medal in British Columbia. Bob Maley was being honoured for his commitment to the Veterans and to the community. For the past 31 years, he has organized Remembrance Day Service and Parades in North Vancouver which is one of the largest in Canada. Along with the Parade and Services he is responsible for bringing the Remembrance Day Educational to the North Shore schools to ensure that the memory of those who made the ultimate sacrifice are kept alive.

His significant contribution that has spanned many decades and continues to this day to ensure that the well-being and needs of the Veterans are taken care of, working many hours and asking for nothing in return. When asked about his award he commented he stated that “he would like to dedicate his award to all of those Veterans who never returned and will continue to serve those that are remaining, he does it for the enjoyment he gets while working for the Veterans and not for the recognition”. It is a great honour that has been bestowed upon him that he will wear proudly.
