Dear All,

REGIMENTAL TIE

1. A recent entry on the website by Dusty Miller prompted me to look at acquiring a silk Regimental Tie at low cost. The one I wear cost £50! I have received a quote from a firm in Glasgow for 50 (minimum order) Woven Silk Ties at approx £15 each approx (includes approx £1.50 per tie to museum). I am happy to go ahead and order at that price if I receive advanced orders for at least 25. An order for 100 will bring the cost down to £10 per tie.

2. If you are interested in buying please let me have your name soonest. I will get a sample prior to confirming the order.

Yours aye,

Bob
