

Dear Stewart,

The London office has just received this year's Christmas Cards, which are now ready for distribution. The 'Snow Goose' design is based on a mosaic made in Nepal by trafficking survivor Manju. Now happily married, she works independently from home to produce bespoke works such as this one.

Once again, thanks to engineering firm Ramboll's generous support, 100% of the £4.99 cover price (per pack of ten cards) comes direct to the Trust. The message inside the card reads: Wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

To place your order you can download the order form and then return it to us in the post.

Or, to help us beat the postal strikes and ensure your cards reach you a little sooner, you can call the office with your order on 020 7600 5654 between 9am and 5pm (Monday to Friday) and we will then get your cards out to you.

If you have any queries about the cards, you can also email christmascards@ebtrust.org.uk.

With my very best wishes from Kathmandu,

Philip
