

The Highlanders Museum (Queen's Own Highlanders Collection) is looking for volunteers - Can you help?

At The Highlanders Museum (Queen's Own Highlanders Collection) we are committed to preserving and sharing the legacy of the world-famous Regiment's we represent for future generations. To achieve this, our volunteers are at the core of everything we do.

Having ex-Seaforth, Cameron's, Lovat Scouts, Queen's Own Highlanders and Highlanders act as volunteers is a fantastic way to add context to the Regiment's story and provides us with first hand experiences which can be passed on to our visitors.

So, if you live in or near Inverness and...

- You have some spare time? *or
 - You have an interest in the military history of the Highlands of Scotland *or
 - You wish to become part of a supportive and committed team *or
 - You want to ensure the Regiments' place in the hearts of our visitors of the future,
- ...then please consider volunteering at the Museum!

There are so many different areas in which you can become involved; it really depends on what you enjoy. Opportunities are available as Museum Guides, Shop Assistants, Education, Collection assistants or Researchers. Some teams offer times which are flexible whilst others require a set morning or afternoon per week. All areas would welcome new members and no previous experience is required as training is provided. Many of our volunteers would be happy to meet with you and talk you through what they do, how they do it and why they enjoy it so much. Fuel allowance within a 35 mile radius of Fort George will be payable to volunteers.

Our current volunteers come from all walks of life; some are former military personnel, others may have had relatives in the Regiments', whilst many have no military connection whatsoever. What brings them all together is a sense of pride in maintaining and upholding the magnificent history of all Highlanders who have served and cemented the 'Regiments' place in the hearts of the people of the Highlands of Scotland and around the world.

So, being an ex-Seaforth, Cameron, Lovat Scout, Queen's Own Highlander or Highlander yourselves, and if you want to continue to ensure the Regiments' place in the Highlands, it would be great to hear from you as well as any family or friends who may be interested in volunteering at The Highlanders Museum (Queen's Own Highlanders Collection).

For further information please contact the Museum on 0131 310 8757 email amanda@thehighlandersmuseum.com or visit the website <https://www.thehighlandersmuseum.com>

Mick Low
Museum Director
The Highlanders Museum (Queen's Own Highlanders Collection)
Fort George, Ardersier, Inverness, IV2 7TD
Tel: 0131 310 8757

