

Celtic CONNECTIONS 2012

Tribute to Alasdair Gillies planned for Spirit of Scotland Celtic Connections show

Dear Friends,

I fly to Glasgow on Monday to be a part of the Spirit of Scotland Pipe Band's performance on January 28 at the Royal Concert Hall. This will be the first time the entire band has come together since the Worlds in 2008. I was asked to cut together 5 video montages that will be projected on a large screen between the band's sets. An additional montage is a 7-minute tribute to the late great Alasdair Gillies, a member of Spirit of Scotland who passed away last August, and will screen while the band plays a very special tune. Below is Pipes/Drums Magazine's headline. <http://www.pipesdrums.com/>

My plan is to tape the entire show and make it available online in the near future. I hope to see some of you at the concert.

Cheers,

John
