

Charlie and Angela Gusterson's son Gus and another 36 of his Squadron (East of Scotland Universities Air Squadron) are taking part in the Edinburgh Marathon, Half Marathon and Hairy Haggis race on 23 May 2010 to raise money for the Mark Wright Project which is a Registered Charity that promote and provide participation in healthy sport, recreation, leisure and social activities for ex-service men and women suffering from combat trauma and stress. They also promote and provide post conflict information advice and support to them.

If anybody feels that they would like to give to this worthy and much needed project it would be gratefully received. Please go to the following link for more information and the ability to give by credit/debit card and the use of gift aid.
