

REMEMBRANCE IN THE KINGDOM OF FIFE 2020

In previous years Sandy Dewar, Pat Gillespie, and Graham Stirling have managed to pay their respects on Armistice Day to some of the Queen's Own Highlanders buried in North West Fife. In 2020 they were accompanied by George Givens, Jim Laughlin, Danny Mullan, and Tommy Graham

During the two minutes silence the thoughts of the group were with comrades named in the Regimental Roll of Honour, but shortly afterwards we were on the road to lay Poppy Crosses and play the Last Post for:

Davie Bathgate in Methil
Lt Col David Watson in Pittenweem
Eddie Hunter in Cupar
Brian Hopkins in Strathmiglo

We were also fortunate to have the families of Davie Bathgate and Brian Hopkins present when we visited their graves
